SUMMER HOLIDAY HOMEWORK CLASS – VIII

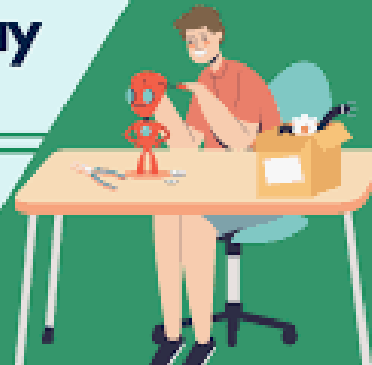

(Session: 2024 – 25)

NAME:

CLASS:

Holidays are time when you can connect with your child in many ways. As parents are the first and the most important teacher for a child, we can encourage our child to participate in many educational activities at home and promote his/her quest to learn. Working together will not only help your child to build, learn and develop his/her skills but also strengthen your bond with him/her.

Class 8th Holiday

English	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Editorial/ Fan Letter - The students must research a societal issue important to them. They must then define the problem from the perspective of the aggrieved parties. Request that they write out the issue and have it published in a local or national newspaper. 2. Book Clubs – The project will concentrate on verbal communication abilities. Choose a book or an excerpt from a book to read. To keep communication streamlined, assign a genre. Students can take turns providing a summary of their reading, along with their thoughts on it. They can discuss the moral values of the characters or alter endings or events to see if the plot becomes more entertaining as a result of these changes. Make videos for the same and send to your subject teacher. 3. Autobiography - In this enjoyable project, the students have to describe their lives in an interesting tone. To avoid monotony, only include life events that you consider exciting or unforgettable. Do emphasize emotions rather than timelines. You can spice up the exercise by having it written as an epilogue about you ideal future life. 4. Imaginary Pen Pals - This activity requires students to write letters to their favourite fictional and non-fictional characters. In any given novel or historical account, identify the era, region, and settings that you enjoy the most. Express interest in one of its characters and explain why. Finally, write a letter to this character praising or advising him or her on his or her role in the piece. 5. Cursive Writing – Complete your cursive writing book till page no. 21.
